Staffordshire born character comedian Ben Gosling comes to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival with Jobs (with Special Guests). Ben's highly imaginative mind and sharp comic timing combine to make a hilarious show exploring the worlds of his character creations.

An alumni of Soho Theatre's Comedy Lab Plus 2019, Ben has been establishing himself as a solo writer-performer and is bringing his character comedy show to Laughing Horse @ The Raging Bull, seeing him perform 40 minutes of brand new material. Ben creates a whole host of diverse and highly amusing characters, inspired by the wide array of jobs he's had and the people he's met in his Staffordshire home town. Characters include Benedict Egg, the eager but naive virtual tour guide, David Wordsmith, President of the local car park committee, struggling with working out the meaning of 'masculinity' in a modern world, and Cyril Sink the chicken seller. Featuring a different special guest act opening each day, Ben and his array of comedy friends bring some of the freshest new talent in the UK scene.

Recent graduate of the Bristol Revunions, Ben has been on stage since he can remember, and has been performing solo work ever since leaving university, where he was Vice President of the sketch group, whose recent alumni include Jamie Demetriou, Mat Ewins and Ellie White. He has written or performed with the Bristol Revunions in 6 shows at the Edinburgh Fringe receiving much critical acclaim.
