RBM Presents

Adele Cliff: In The Dark (WIP)

@ Edinburgh Fringe

12th - 22nd August
32 Below (West Nicholson Street)
5.15pm

RBM are excited to announce a new work in progress show from accomplished joke writer Adele Cliff, her third hour long show and fifth solo appearance at the Edinburgh Fringe.

In The Dark sees Adele discuss the power of knowledge and the power in refusing it, things you have to know and the ones you just can't along with all sorts of things that go on when the lights go off. It allows her to share her perspective on a number of big topics in her unique, playful and amiable style.

Adele has long been a staple of the best joke lists at the Edinburgh festival. Most notably she is the only comedian to appear in Dave's Funniest Jokes of the Fringe for four consecutive years (2016, 2017, 2018, 2019) she has also featured in best jokes lists in The Telegraph, The Evening Standard, The Irish Times, The I Newspaper and The Metro as well as being nominated for Leicestershire's Favorite Joke in 2019. She is also the reigning UK Pun Champion (2020), the only woman ever to claim the title.

'Absolutely charming... a skilled performer, with a real presence and confidence' (The Scotsman)
