MEET YOUR HOSTS

Daniel Delby is a FRINGE WORLD Best Weekly Comedy award winner,, Host of the cult show Sunday Singles at the Comedy Lounge, a regular on 96fm, host of the top ten podcast The Hard Yarns and corporate entertainer.

He has featured as a comedian on Channel 7's Sunrise, is the creator of the sold-out Teacher Comedy Nights and is one half of the hit show Whose Rhyme?

Daniel also has a wealth of experience in teaching children as he was a special needs and ATAR Chemistry teacher for 11 years before resigning to pursue comedy full time. He has run professional development days for staff and was an accredited action learning coach that other teachers sought out to improve their practice.

The future looks bright for this rising comedy superstar.

Macshane is Renowned for his high energy lightning quit wit, spontaneous improvisation and mastery of the art of freestyle rap - having channelled his passion for performance for the last 10 years to carve out an eclectic and ever evolving career.

From performing as a regular hype man for international DJ's, a frontman for live bands, a host for large public events, a TEDx speaker, featuring on commercial radio stations, performing as a comedian on stage and an artist at Australian and international music festivals - Macshane has applied his broad skillset to assert himself as one of Australia's most unique MC's.

In addition to amassing over 2 million streams on Spotify for the rap anthem "I Said", Macshane has had music videos played on MTV Australia and was the recipient of the 2017 WAM award for best hip hop song for "Meant to do"

There is no slowing down for this freestyle rap superweapon.
