“Funny, silly, moving, ukulele.”

With sharp wit and unexpected musical turns, award-winning South African comedian Phil de Lange brings The Phil Monty to the 2025 Edinburgh Fringe — a finely-tuned solo hour blending stand-up, song, and emotional honesty.

Known for his offbeat humour and musical flair, Phil lays it bare with a hilarious and heartfelt take on his early-onset midlife crisis, awkward doctor’s visits, grief, the politics of puffer jackets, and the existential terror of neighbourhood WhatsApp groups. Armed with a ukulele and a well-aimed punchline, he weaves the personal with the playful in a show that’s melodic, original, and refreshingly candid.

This is stand-up with soul, rhythm, and range. Whether serenading his inner critic or riffing on real life, Phil delivers an hour of comedy that hits home — and hits the funny bone.
