

KIMBERLANDACE PRODUCTIONS

"creative. challenging. funny. true."

Fresh new production team, Kimberlandace (pronounced "kim-bə̃r-land-iss"), joins two artistic minds from across the globe to create a hilarious and controversial one-woman-show about a 30 year old virgin's strange journey from prudery to freedom.

Sex. God. Virgin birth. Baseball?...It's all a bit confusing... The Life & Times of A Modern Day Mary--written by Kimberley Maurice & Candace Stimpson--is a quick-witted, flashy, dynamic and quotable theatrical event that provokes thought and pushes the boundaries of traditional Christianity, sexuality and femininity.

Emerging Actress, Candace Stimpson, is a brilliant, raw, Edinburgh-based talent. Her portrayal of Amy, the prudish virgin from Texas, who finds herself mysteriously pregnant, is funny and surprising. Stimpson is a gifted artist who needs to be seen to be believed. A new butterfly, she is spreading her wings and we invite you to watch her take flight.

Both members of Kimberlandace have been working in the arts for the past decade, engaging and developing their skills in theatre & film in Scotland, Canada and the United States. This is their first combined theatrical endeavor.
